

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, April 5. 1718.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated April 1.

Madrid, March 8.

WE have begun to make the usual Prayers for the Queen's happy Delivery, her Majesty being far advanc'd in her Child bearing. 'Tis not yet known what the Court has resolv'd upon, in relation to the Offers that have been made on the part of the King of Morocco to treat of Peace, which Offers have been sent hither by the Governour of Ceuta.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 8.

Rome, March 19. Yesterday Cardinal Acquaviva sent one of his Gentlemen to demand Audience of the Pope, but not obtaining it, he sent the same Gentleman with a Letter, whereby he demanded of his Holiness Satisfaction upon the Arrest made last Week of a Soldier in his Quarter; but the Pope having given him no satisfactory Answer thereupon, he has caus'd a great many armed Men to post themselves round about his Palace. The same Cardinal sent again his Secretary to Cardinal del Giudice, to exhort him to take down the Arms of Spain from over the Door of his Palace, but he has not yet done it, and 'tis even said that he will depart for his Bishoprick of Palestrina without doing it. Several Spanish Families who have been obliged to quit Naples, upon being suspected to be disaffected to the Emperour's Interest, are newly arriv'd here, and some of them would have shelter'd themselves in the Palace of Cardinal Acquaviva, but could not gain Admittance. An Accommodation between the Pope and the Emperour is treated on, but 'tis unknown what Progress is made in it, being kept very secret. The Marquis de Rubi, who was Viceroy of Sardinia, is arriv'd here in his way to Naples, in the Quality of Governour of the Castle de l'Oeuf.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated April 8.

Rome, March 19. On Tuesday last Cardinal Acquaviva receiv'd a Courier from Madrid, with the Answers of the Court upon the refusal of the Expedition of the Bulls of the Archbishoprick of Seville for Cardinal Alberoni. But we do not hear that he has yet had Audience of the Pope, or any Answer upon the Satisfaction he demands concerning the Affair of the Soldier who was arrested some Days ago; in the meantime, he causes arm'd Men to patrol continually round the Palace of Spain. On Wednesday the Pope gave a long Audience to Count Gallasch, Ambassadors of his Imperial Majesty. 'Tis said the Viceroy of Naples having refus'd Prince Ottajano the Permission of coming hither, Cardinal Barbarini has dispatch'd a Courier to Vienna, to obtain it.

Genoa, March 19. A Courier from Madrid pass'd by here last Monday, going to Rome with Dispatches from the Nuncio to the Pope. He met near Narbonne Don Carlo Grillo, who was going to the Court of Madrid. The Spaniards establish great Magazines at Longone, and the Imperialists reinforce their Posts upon the Coasts of Tuscany. We hear from Barcelona, that they detain many Ships there, to serve for their last and greatest Embarkment, which they hope to get ready next Month.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 8.

Modena, March 21. The Count de Charolois, Brother of the Duke of Bourbon, arriv'd here lately, having been met at some Leagues from the City by the Coaches of the Duke of Modena, with those of the principal Nobility. He alighted at the Ducal Palace, where a magnificent Apartment was prepar'd for him, and had immediately the Honour to salute the Duke and all his Family. He is defrayed at the Expence of the Duke, and is accompanied by his eldest Son, who waits upon him every where. He has also been entertain'd with a fine Carousal, Hunting, and other Diversions; and 'tis said he will in a short time return to France by the way of Milan and Turin.

Milan, March 26. Abundance of Ammunition and Provisions have been sent from this City to divers Frontiers Places. A Company of the Guards of Prince Leewestem Wertheim, are posted at Marignano, and another at Casso, to examine very strictly all Strangers that come thither. 300 Soldiers are also detach'd to take Possession of divers Posts upon the Po. 'Tis said the Marquis de Lita, Governour of Turin, is in a short time to make an Expedition of Importance.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated April 5.

Vienna, March 23. An Express arriv'd here Yesterday from Paris, and 'tis reported that the Court of France has given fresh Assurances of their Resolution to observe an exact Neutrality in relation to the Affairs of Italy. Which is what will very much break the Measures of some Princes who flatter'd themselves with hopes of the contrary. 'Tis assur'd that the Emperour will send thither in case of Need, three Regiments from the Netherlands, one of Bavaria, three Palatine, three Saxon, and three that are to be rais'd in Switzerland; the Colonels for which are already named, and are General Diesbach, M. de Burklay, and M. Tellier. These added to the Troops that are sent from Hungary, will compose a Body sufficient for the Defence of his Imperial Majesty's Dominions there.

From the Hague Courant, dated April 1.

Nantes, March 22. The Pirates in the West Indies have taken divers Ships from Nantz, which they plunder'd, and forc'd many of the Seamen into their service. They begun but with 2 Barks, and are increas'd to 3 or 4000 Men, and have furnish'd all the Ships they have taken. But since they took the Ship Concordia of 30 Guns from Nantes, as also an English Ship of 30 Guns, they have no more been heard of, as we learn by two Ships newly arriv'd from St. Domingo at Nantes; and 'tis concluded that they are gone to the Side of the Mascarene, or the Brasil Coast most probably, by reason of a Report spread that several Men of War were coming from France against them; and in Effect there are three or four Men of War fitting out at Port Louis for this purpose. A Ship from Martinico is arriv'd at Nantes, and four Ships that lay ready to sail when they came away, were resolv'd to take Malitia on board for their Defence.
